As we view
our lives through a crystal ball

we travel to an older and wiser tomorrow.

Through
our experiences
the crystal may sometimes be clear . . .

or cloudy...

or even shattered.

Yes, we will lose some of the fragments . . .

but by remembering

we are able to piece

the crystal back together.

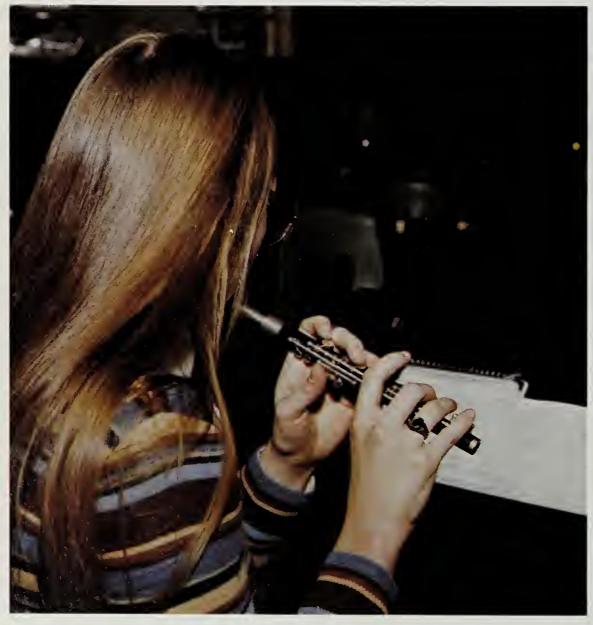

This is the magic of memories.

The Army National Guard . . . for the man whose time is valuable enough to give to his country.

When you add it all up, the Guard makes sense. For one weekend a month, you'll enjoy a change of pace. You'll learn a new skill, make some friends, and maybe even a few business contacts. The prestige of the Guard will be with you in your civilian life.

But we leave you plenty of time to be something more than a soldier; time to put all you've learned to work for yourself. Most importantly, you'll have time to be yourself.

There are generous benefits like low-cost life insurance, PX buying privileges, valuable skill training, and good pay. At age sixty, there's a great pension program for retired Army Guardsmen.

There's also the benefit of knowing you're ready and able to help your country. Whether it needs you at home, or in defense of that home.

A whole new world of experiences and opportunities are waiting. Isn't it time you joined in the most important part-time job in America?

SEE PLT SGT. JOHN M. COYLE LOCATED AT THE ARMORY AT 340 SOUTH WILLOW STREET IN HARRISONBURG, VA., OR CALL 434-6594 AND SEE WHAT THE ARMY NATIONAL GUARD CAN DO FOR YOU!

The Magician's Final Tricks

Band has finally driven me !?!*.

Chain gang.

"Help! Get this worm off my lip!"

"I'm free third period."

"It's not exactly a water bed."

"Now that we're organized what do we do?"

"Older women just drive me wild."

"My next victim will be . . .?"

"Howard, you're stoned again!"

"Do What 'cha wanna,

when 'ya wanna, how 'ya wanna,

say, do your thing, get down!"

Top Turkey at B.H.S.

Cha-a-r-g-e-!!!

"Who says Bigfoot dosen't exist?"

This is a very advanced form of "doodling."

Mr. Ron Smith and Todd Early discuss Todd's overnight growth.

The best senior banquets are planned in dark hallways.

"You're sure they don't have co-ed barracks?"

"Two more bites and it's back to English."

"I wonder if he's thinking what we're thinking?"

"My Suzuki? Sure, I Lovett."

"Whatever blows your skirt up."

"Mighty Mouth."

David gives and David takes away.
